GOLFING in and around Clackmannanshire

Seven Golf Courses and Spectacular Views

The Wee County - Golf In Variety

The seven golf courses of Clackmannanshire offer golf in variety - 9 holes, 18 holes, parkland and hillside, bunkered and bunker free. By all means pay attention to your game but "Look About Ye" too, there are spectacular views to be enjoyed.

The three hillside courses of Alva, Tillicoultry and Dollar are built close to small communities and nestle at the foot of the Ochils. Although generally shorter in length the small greens and sloping fairways provide a challenging but fair test of golf.

The remaining four courses at Alloa, Braehead, Muckhart and Tulliallan are parkland in nature. Their quality has been recognised by the fact that they have hosted National Championship events on several occasions.

Clackmannanshire is well situated, being within one hour's drive of Edinburgh and Glasgow. The golfing visitor can use the area as a base to travel to many Scottish golfing gems. Gleneagles, venue for the 2014 Ryder Cup, is no more than 45 minutes just over the hills. St Andrews and Loch Lomond are within easy reach.

Clackmannanshire has a variety of historic attractions

Castle Campbell by Dollar, Gartmorn Dam at Sauchie and Alloa and Clackmannan Towers. You can enjoy hill walking in the Ochils and there is a good network of cycle paths.

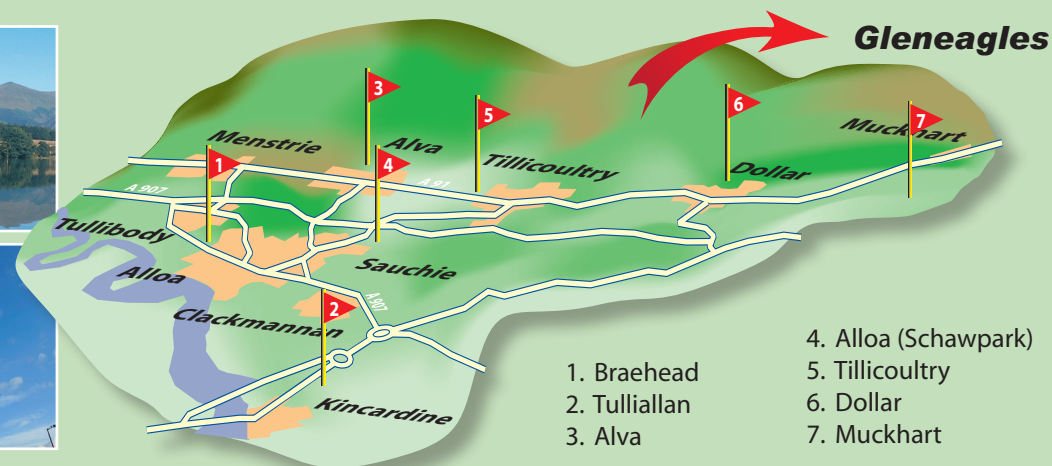

A good variety of shops can be found in our towns and villages and the popular Sterling Mills outlet shopping village is in Tillicoultry.
